Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

by Mark Hayes

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: We come as we are, wounded, weary, and worn.

People: We come to worship the one who heals, renews, and restores.

Leader: We come as we are, clay pots fractured by the brokenness we both experience and exhibit.

People: We come to worship the one who forgives the brokenness we cause, and repairs the brokenness we experience.

Leader: We come as we are, ready to be stretched into something new.

People: Come Holy Spirit, and stretch us into the likeness of the Son, that we might reflect his beauty in our every thought and deed.

* OPENING PRAYER

Gracious and loving God: We come today as works in progress. We are not all we should be, but we know your work in us is not yet complete. Come Holy Creator, come and recreate us in your image. Stretch us beyond the comfort of where we find ourselves today, and reshape us into the image of Christ you long for us to reflect. In Jesus name we ask. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Readings

Exodus 19:1-7 New Revised Standard Version (NRSV)

On the third new moon after the Israelites had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that very day, they came into the wilderness of Sinai. They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.”

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him.

Acts 2:37-47 New Revised Standard Version (NRSV)

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?” Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.” And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added. They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds^{to all} to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous^{hearts} hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.
