Beth Parker

It's Sunday morning. Last week, with all its demands, is over. The coming week, with yet another round of challenges and demands, is not quite here. I invite you to close your eyes and be in the moment. No matter where you are in your thoughts and feelings—relieved about what you have accomplished, anxious about what's left undone, concerned about people or projects—no matter where you are in your journey this day—I encourage you to set all that aside and consider where you are right now. Whatever is true for you right now, in this moment, whether it be joy or sadness, gratitude or anxiety, let it come forward. When it is fully present, then listen... for God is present in these moments, too. God meets you where you are and calls you forward, moment by moment, guiding you slowly but surely toward transformation.

(Silent time)

As we extinguish this light, we acknowledge the darkness and pain caused by the lack of basic needs—lack of food, of shelter, of education, of healthcare, of love.

OPENING PRAYER

led by Beth Parker

Loving God, we thank you that you are with us, and that we may call upon you no matter where we are, or what we are feeling. Keep us mindful of your presence and trusting in your promise — that you are working with us in the moment-by-moment unfolding of our lives. Amen.

Lyrics to Anthem, God So Loved the World by Lloyd Larson

God so loved the world that He gave His only Son
that all who believe in Him should not perish, should not perish.
God so loved the world, God so loved the world
that He gave His Son, His one and only Son.

God so loved the world that He gave His only Son
that all who believe in Him should not perish, should not perish.
God so loved the world, God so loved the world
that He gave His Son, His one and only Son.

God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world,
God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world,
but to save the world and grant eternal life.

God so loved the world that He gave His only Son
that all who believe in Him should not perish, should not perish
God so loved the world, God so loved world
that He gave His son, His one and only Son.
God so loved the world.
